

MX-ONE V5 News

Description

This course will identify the new features and functionality of the MX-ONE version 5 Telephony system. The Manager Provisioning and Manager Telephony System Applications will be utilized to explore these new features.

Prerequisites

- Previous knowledge of MX-ONE v4 or below
- A good skill in computer literacy
- An active role or an interest in telecommunications management

Training Technique

- Verbal instruction
- Demonstrations and Practical exercises
- Discussion and questions and answers

Who Should Attend

This course has been designed for IT and Telecommunication personnel who will be responsible for implementing moves and changes and rolling out new features to the user community.

What will you learn

- Introduction to MX-ONE v5
- New IP Phone Features in Manager Provisioning and Manager Telephony system

Duration

1 day

Max Delegates

6

Course Contents

- Introduction to System design
 - Description of Available Modules
 - Description of Physical Architecture and Telephony hardware
 - Overview of Redundancy Options
 - Overview of available Unified Communications and Collaboration Suites
- IP features and facilities using Manager Provisioning, including:
 - EDN for IP
 - Multi-Terminal User
 - Share Call Appearance
 - Call Park Pool
 - Call Bridging
 - Intercom
 - Do not disturb
 - BluStar PC & BluStar Mobile